

Dear Friends,

Here are some organizations that one may contact to actively participate in an antifracking campaign, or just for more information. We all can be of service to the environment!

Protecting our Waters--Delaware River Basin moratorium

Delaware River Keepers--Watersheds around Delaware River/moratorium

Training for Change--Actions to win a moratorium on fracking

Energy Justice Network--fighting demand for natural gas

Earthworks Oil and Gas Accountability Project--Nadia Steinzor

Berks Gas Truth--Karen Feridun

Curtin and HeefnerLLP--Legal Strategies to fight fracking--Jordan Yeager

Food & Water Watch--developing strategies and organizing to stop fracking

Responsible Drilling Alliance--All issues

Marcellus Protest--what to do when you suspect contamination

PennEnvironment--electoral strategies and fracking as a wedge issue

Biohabitats Inc--where woods meet wells

Pipeline Safety Coalition--pipeline infrastructure: what you need to know and why

Don't forget other churches and The League of Women voters.

In Stewardship,

Rebecca Mitchell
